FOREWORD

The Gambia University of Applied Science, Engineering and Technology (USET) is dedicated to fostering the intellectual, cultural, social, and moral growth of its diverse student body, acknowledging the unique backgrounds and experiences that each student brings. Recognizing the significant impact of student behavior on academic success, the University provides this Handbook as a valuable resource to guide students in navigating the academic environment. Specifically designed to support new students, this Handbook outlines the expectations and standards that govern student conduct throughout their time at the University.

As an institution striving for excellence in Sub-Saharan Africa, the University ensures that its graduates not only meet rigorous academic standards but also embody the values of character and integrity. Students are encouraged to thoroughly familiarise themselves with the information contained in this Handbook, as it provides essential guidance for a successful academic journey and serves as a foundation for a productive and fulfilling university experience.

We extend our best wishes to all students for a fulfilling, successful, and enriching experience at USET.

Professor Nazmat Toyin Surajudeen-Bakinde, Vice-Chancellor,

PREAMBLE

The Gambia University of Applied Science, Engineering and Technology (USET) was established with a clear mission to:

- a. Be a center of Academic Excellence by offering Certificate, Diploma, and Degree programmes specifically in Science, Engineering, and Technology, with a strong focus on developing an Entrepreneurial Mindset.
- b. Advance learning, conduct research, and provide a high, liberal education to all persons without discrimination.
- c. Relate its activities to the socio-cultural and economic needs of the people of The Gambia.

Achieving this mission requires an environment of peace and harmony where the Rule of Law prevails. Students must demonstrate high standards of discipline, honesty, dedication, and respect for authority. As the University awards its diplomas, certificates, and degrees based on worthiness in both character and learning, you are responsible for knowing and upholding all Rules and Regulations at all times.

1. STUDENTS' CONDUCT

The University is primarily founded to foster the intellectual, social, and cultural growth of its students. It is also committed to promoting good character as a fundamental part of education. When a student accepts an admission offer and takes the Matriculation Oath, he/she automatically agree to follow the University's Rules and Regulations as they are updated.

This acceptance also requires the student to behave as a responsible and law-abiding member of the academic community, adhering to the highest standards and guidelines set by the University's constituted authorities.

2. PERSONAL AND ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

- a. It is universally acknowledged that any form of dishonesty constitutes a behavioral issue that must be strictly avoided. Therefore, all students are required to adhere rigorously and consistently to the following minimum standards of personal and academic integrity:
 - i. Demonstrate honesty and uphold ethical conduct throughout their academic pursuits,
 - ii. Attend all lectures punctually and dress appropriately in accordance with the University's approved dress code,
 - iii. Maintain a high level of orderliness and proper decorum in classrooms and lecture halls,
 - iv. Complete and submit assignments honestly and on time,
 - v. Accurately cite all references used in assignments,
 - vi. Observe ethical standards when using the library for assignments and research.
 - vii. Cooperate fully in any investigation related to allegations of dishonesty,
 - viii. Take pride in upholding the University's ethical standards through speech, writing, attitude, and behaviour,
 - ix. Treat all members of the University community with respect, fostering harmonious relationships in classrooms, hostels, offices, and other settings.
 - x. Conduct oneself responsibly by avoiding anti-social activities, particularly cultism, as involvement may lead to expulsion or severe consequences. Prioritize positive behavior and associate with reputable company; avoid joining any unregistered groups or associations not approved by the Student Affairs Unit.

- xi. Prioritise positive behavior and associate with reputable company; avoid joining any unregistered groups or associations not approved by the Student Affairs Unit.
- xii. Maintain good personal hygiene and ensure hostel rooms are kept clean to prevent health hazards.
- xiii. Adhere strictly to the University's dress code by dressing modestly and appropriately.
- xiv. Refrain from any involvement in pornography, whether on or off campus.
- xv. Students must also:
 - a) avoid promiscuity,
 - b) refrain from cheating,
 - c) avoid conflict of interest,
 - d) avoid plagiarism or fabrication of data and ideas,
 - e) not use unauthorized aids during tests or examinations,
 - f) not falsify or alter any record,
 - g) avoid impersonation (do not allow others to use your identity).
- b. All students are expected to uphold the highest standards of integrity. The University treats any unethical, immoral, dishonest, disloyal, or destructive conduct, as well as any violation of university regulations, as serious offenses.

3. DISCIPLINARY RULES

The rules of discipline require that a student shall:

- a. Refrain from engaging in any activity, whether individually or with others, that interferes with, restricts, hinders, or negatively impacts:
 - i. the objectives of the University as outlined in the university policy.

- j. not write an insulting letter to an official of the University.
- k. not by-pass the official line of communication while writing to the University Administration. The approved line of communication is through the appropriate Head of Department and the Dean of Faculty. All student grievances (other than academic matters) should be routed through the Dean of Student Affairs to the appropriate Authority. Also, correspondence from the Students' Union to the University Administration must be duly signed by both the President and the Secretary of the Students' Union before being routed through the Dean of Student Affairs Unit to the appropriate authorities.
- l. not without university approval, communicate with external agencies, governments or national/international Organisations for the purpose of soliciting financial sponsorship/aid.
- m. not be in possession of any kind of dangerous objects, weapons and harmful chemicals.

4. STUDENT DISCIPLINARY COMMITTEE (SDC)

Any student alleged to have committed any act of misconduct shall be charged with such misconduct, and shall be given 48 hours within which to respond in writing, and be subsequently requested to appear before the Student Disciplinary Committee except in cases of emergency.

Also, any student invited to the Student Disciplinary Committee (SDC) for any act of misconduct and fails to honour such invitation for three (3) times, shall be deemed to be guilty of the misconduct as charged. All decisions of disciplinary action involving students shall be communicated to the affected student(s) through the Head of Department of respective Department(s) and/or pasting same in conspicuous and designated area(s) within the Campus.

5. APPEAL AGAINST DECISIONS OF UNIVERSITY ADMINISTRATION

- (i) In all disciplinary cases, the student concerned has a right to appeal to the Council through his/her Head of Department, the Dean of his/her Faculty and the Vice Chancellor against the recommendation of the Student Disciplinary Committee which was ratified by University Administration within 48 days of the receipt of the disciplinary decision.
- (ii) Appeals shall be considered by Council through an independent Committee of Council which shall make appropriate recommendation to the Council.

6. HALLS OF RESIDENCE

a. Accommodation

- i. Due to limited number of bedspaces, accommodation will only be provided to eligible students through online balloting in the school owned hostels by the University from time to time.

The accommodation fees are as approved by the University and advertised from time to time. However, private hostels' accommodations are available for students that can afford such.

- ii. Modalities/procedures for accommodation and application shall be determined by the Dean of Student Affairs from time to time.
- iii. No student shall be accommodated on any of the campuses except he/she is in good standing and duly registered for the session.
- iv. Expelled student(s) shall automatically be ejected from any of the Hostels on the campus without a right of refund.
- v. Students in residence will be responsible for the cleaning of their rooms and for their laundry.
- vi. Any form of merchandising by students is prohibited in hostels.
- vii. Students must make their beds and always leave their rooms clean and tidy. They must be prepared to participate in room and hostel sanitation exercises from time to time as the need arises.

b. Exeat from Hall of Residence

- i. Students residing in Hall of Residence must not be away from the Campus without an exeat obtained from the Hall Masters/ Mistresses.
- ii. In an extreme emergency, a student must leave with the Porters, a written statement indicating the destination, reasons for his or her departure and the probable duration of his/her absence.
- iii. The Porters must report to the Student Affairs Unit immediately in case of urgent reasons for a student to exit campus.

c. Visit to Hall of Residence

- i. A visitor to Hall of Residence shall be received by his/her host/hostess in the Students' Common Room only.

d. Approved Hall Functions and Private Parties:

- i. The hall authorities are responsible for the purpose to which the grounds, common rooms, rooms and notice boards in their halls of residence may be used. Permission to use these facilities must be obtained from the Dean of Student Affairs Unit in writing, through the Hall Masters/Mistresses, giving at least 48 hours' notice.
- ii. Meetings: Student or any student group wishing to hold a Meeting/Function in the Common Room of the Hall concerned must obtain an approval of the Dean of Student Affairs Unit subject to a written letter by the student through the Hall Master/Mistress to the Dean of Student Affairs Unit.
- iii. Parties: A written approval issued by the Hall Masters/Mistresses in response to an application in writing must be obtained by any individual student or group of students wishing to hold a party in the Common Room of the Hall concerned.
- iv. No parties of any description can be held in any room in the hall. All approved parties are to be held in the Common Room.
- v. Approved gatherings involving dances and drinks (water & soft drinks) must not go beyond 8.00p.m. Under no circumstance should alcoholic drinks or drugs and other related substances be served, consumed, abused or sold.

e. Electrical Appliances, Fire and Fire Prevention

- i. The use of certain electrical appliances may cause electrical faults and result in fire hazard. Therefore, under no condition must electrical appliances like boiling rings, freezer, heating coils, hot plates, and multiple outlets etc, be used in the student rooms.
- ii. Students are allowed to use rechargeable/solar lamps but not candles in the student rooms when there is power outage.

f. Prohibition of sales and smoking of substances on Campus

- i. Sales and smoking of substances are strictly prohibited on campus. Therefore, students are not allowed to smoke anywhere on campus.

g. Fighting

- i. Fighting is prohibited in the University and students are expected to desist from fighting of any form.
- ii. A student that provokes another student or person(s) without retaliation from the other student or person(s) shall be made to appear before the Student Disciplinary Committee.

h. Pets

Pets are prohibited in and around university campuses i.e. dogs, cats, fish, rabbits, tortoise, chameleons, chickens, cows, horses, birds, reptiles, etc.

i. Squatting

No student should be found in the room that is not allocated to him/her in any of the hostels within the University.

j. Security of Personal Property Students are to safeguard their personal properties. Doors should be locked all times and the keys removed on leaving the room. Students must not leave personal property in their rooms during long vacations. Keys should be deposited with the porters. On no account should students travel out of the campus with keys. The University will not accept responsibility for loss of properties so left in the Hall of Residence.

k. Parking Any student residing in any of the Hall of Residence with cars/motorcycles/bicycles must register with the Student Affairs Unit. Motor cars, motorcycles and bicycles shall be parked in the appropriate places provided, at owners' risk.

7. CATERING SERVICES

Students' catering services are provided on Campus by private caterers. Some are Canteens while others are Eateries. Students are to pay for what they consume in the Canteens or the Eateries. All students are required to comply strictly with the regulations guiding the canteens and Eateries as may be formulated from time to time.

i. The University frowns at any student who exhibits an anti-social behaviour in and around the canteens and eateries and within and outside the campus.

8. ORIENTATION OF FRESH STUDENTS

i. Orientation Activities

The orientation of new students to the University usually takes place during the first few weeks of resumption for the session. The Academic Support Service in collaboration with the Student Affairs unit, and other departments/units, organises the orientation programme. The programme is intended to enlighten newly admitted students about university academic, social, security, school policies, library, sport, counselling, medical services, security and integrate into campus life.

Orientation also affords students an opportunity to familiarise themselves with the rules, regulations and procedures of the University. In addition, the orientation activities offer the students a singular opportunity to avoid unnecessary embarrassment. As part of the Orientation week activities, newly admitted students can meet the Registrar, Dean of Student Affairs, Deans of Faculties, Heads of Departments and Senior Administrative Officers. Newly admitted students must attend the orientation activities and sign the attendance register.

9. REGISTRATION OF STUDENTS

Newly admitted students are required to commence registration processes according to the guidelines as may be determined by the University Administration. Clinic registration is considered as prerequisite for complete registration.

Instruction on Presentation of Names

Students are required to present their names (maximum of three names including the surname) in the following approved style: surname first in capitals, then other names e.g. ABDULKADIR, Moses Mendy.

10. UNIVERSITY HEALTH SERVICES

As part of the registration process, students are required to register with the Health Centre. Newly admitted students must undergo a medical examination at the point of entry.

Please note that The Gambia University of Applied Science, Engineering, and Technology (USET) is planning to establish a Healthcare Centre, and updates will be provided to students as plans progress.

To facilitate this process, new students should obtain a Certificate of Medical Fitness from a recognized hospital or clinic, confirming their medical suitability to participate in university activities.

11. MATRICULATION, MATRICULATION NUMBERS AND IDENTITY CARDS

a. Matriculation

Only students who have satisfied the minimum admission requirements of the University are matriculated as students at the University. On the Matriculation Day, each of the newly admitted students swears to the Matriculation Oath which shall be provided by the University. Violation of the Matriculation Oath is a very serious offence.

b. Use of Matriculation Number

Each student is assigned a Matriculation Number upon registration. No official document of any student will be regarded as valid unless it carries the student's assigned matriculation number.

No previously matriculated student in the University should matriculate a second time. On no account must any student produce or reproduce another student's matriculation number or non-existing matriculation number as his or her own.

c. Identity cards

- i. Each matriculated student of the University is issued an official student Identity Card, valid for the period indicated on the card and which should be renewed as appropriate. The Identity Card must be worn with the appropriate faculty branded lanyard on the neck at all times when on campus. Students may be required, at any time, to identify themselves upon request by authorised University officials, acting in the performance of their duties.

Some University facilities are open only to students who are able to show valid identity cards. No student will be admitted to the Library, Lecture Rooms, Examination Venues, Administrative Building, Counselling & Human Development Centre, Student Affairs Unit, Laboratories, Hall of Residence etc. without the Identity card. The cost of each identity card is determined by the University from time to time.

ii. Loss of Identity Card:

- a. A student who loses his/her Identity Card must report in writing to the Deputy Registrar (Academic Affairs) through his/her Level Adviser through the Head of Department, through the Dean.
- b. An application for the issuance of a new identity card must be endorsed by the Security Unit of the University and Dean of Student Affairs accompanied by a Police Report and Affidavit on loss of identity card.
- c. New identity cards will be issued on payment of a sum which shall be determined by the University from time to time.
- d. A temporary I.D. Card shall be issued by the faculty officer to any student who misplaced his or her I.D. Card after he/she must have complied with a & b above.

iii. Submission of Identity Card:

Student leaving the University upon completion or before completion (relocation, transfer, misconduct etc.) of his/her programme must return the Identity Card to the Deputy Registrar (Academic Affairs) through his/her Faculty Officer or Dean of Student Affairs Office, respectively.

iv. Misuse of Identity Card:

It is an offence for students to misuse their own Identity Card or other students' Identity Card either by way of transfer or impersonation.

12. UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

a. Office Hours

The USET Library is open to students upon proper registration with the Library. The opening hours are:

Monday – Friday	-	9.00 a.m. - 7.00 p.m.
Saturday	-	9.00 a.m. - 2.00 p.m.
Sunday	-	5.00 p.m. - 7.00 p.m.

The library is closed on Public Holidays. The University Librarian shall reserve the right to extend the operation hours during examination period as may be deemed fit. Currently the Library is open 24 hours around examination periods.

13. TRANSPORT SERVICES

The Gambia University of Applied Science, Engineering, and Technology (USET) is developing subsidised transport services for students. Details of the service, including routes, schedules, and costs, will be communicated to the Student Union and made available to students. The subsidised fare will be determined by the University and may be adjusted periodically.

The USET Transport Board, operating under the Directorate of Works and Maintenance, will oversee the transportation services, ensuring convenient and reliable routes options for students.

14. REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE CONDUCT OF UNIVERSITY EXAMINATIONS

A. Eligibility

All students who are duly registered for courses in a given semester are eligible to sit for examinations in those courses except students in the following categories:

- a. A student who absents himself/herself from the University for more than six weeks in any semester without official permission shall be deemed to have voluntarily withdrawn from the University;
- b. A student who fails to attend up to 70% practical/Lecture hours;

B. Instructions to Students:

- i. Students shall always ensure that they acquaint themselves with the examination regulations and instructions to students.
- ii. Students shall attend the examinations punctually at the time scheduled for their papers. Students arriving more than half an hour after the examination has started shall not be admitted to the examination hall.
- iii. Students shall bring with them to the examination hall their own ink, pens, rulers, erasers and pencils, and any other materials which are permitted by these regulations (as stated hereunder). Accordingly, students are warned in their own interest to ensure that lecture notes, text books, jotters, bags, mobile phones, wristwatches and other related prohibited items are not brought into the examination venue. Students are advised not bring such to the examination venue. Examination venue includes the hall and its surrounding.
- iv. Students must sign the attendance register at the beginning of each paper.
- v. Having signed the attendance register, no student shall leave the examination hall without submitting his/her answer script.
- vi. No student shall leave the examination hall for whatever reason without informing the invigilator.

vii. To ensure orderliness in the examination hall, seats shall be arranged according to the number of groups taking examinations at each particular time and students shall not enter the hall until they have been checked of their identity cards and other relevant documents. Students shall keep strictly to the sitting arrangements to avoid confusion. Chairs arranged in the halls used for examination purposes should not, under any circumstances, be removed. Students wishing to do some revision before the commencement of an examination shall do so outside the examination hall.

viii. While the examination is in progress, communication of any kind between/among students is strictly prohibited and no student should be found to be giving or receiving irregular assistance.

ix. Silence shall be observed in the examination hall and the venue. The only permissible way of attracting attention of the invigilator is by raising of hand.

x. The use of scrap paper, writing or jotting on question paper is prohibited. All rough work shall be done in the Answer booklet and crossed neatly through. Supplementary answer sheets, which shall not be supplied until at least half-an-hour after the commencement of the examination shall be attached to the main answer booklet even if they contain only rough work.

xi. Students taking Mathematics or Engineering Drawing and similar courses shall bring their own Mathematical or drawing instruments, which may include compass and dividers, protractors, diagonal scales and set squares. Personal copies of Mathematical/Statistical Tables are allowed in the examination provided there are no inscriptions on them.

xii. Before handing in their scripts at the end of the examination, students shall satisfy themselves that they have inserted, at the appropriate places, their matriculation numbers and the numbers of the questions answered. Except for the question paper and any other materials, they may have legitimately brought with them (as indicated in rules B(iii) and (xi) above), students shall not be allowed to remove or mutilate any paper or material supplied by the University.

xiii. Students shall use their matriculation numbers for examinations. (Students who are in doubt of their correct matriculation numbers are advised to confirm from the Senate and Examinations Office).

xiv. Students shall not be allowed to submit their answer scripts in the first thirty minutes and last fifteen minutes of any examination.

xv. Students shall remain seated while invigilators organise the collection of answer scripts.

xvi. Students shall write their names, matriculation numbers, department and sign against them on the attendance sheet.

xvii. Students intending to use calculators in any University examination should observe the following regulations:

- i. Students shall be permitted the use of nonprogrammable electronic calculators only;
- ii. The Calculator must be small (hand-held) battery/solar operated;
- iii. A student shall not borrow another student's calculator during the examination as this practice shall be construed as giving or receiving irregular assistance during the examination;

- iv. Instruction manuals, including calculator packets and containers are prohibited in the examination hall as these often contain useful mathematical formulae and methods;
- v. On entry into the examination venue, the calculator shall be switched off and its memory be made blank;
- vi. Only one calculator per student is allowed;
- vii. Students shall make available to the invigilators for inspection, their calculators, mathematical/statistical tables, drawing boards on entry into the examination hall and at any time during the examination. A contravention of any of these regulations shall be treated as examination misconduct.

C. Examination Code of Conduct, Offences and Penalties

i. Code of Conduct:

Students shall:

- i. not introduce or attempt to introduce into examination venue hand bags, books, notes, mobile phones, electronic devices, instruments (i-pad/i-pod, flash drives and any other storage device) or other materials or aids that are not permitted;
- ii. not enter any examination venue with any inscriptions on any part of the dress or body whether or not such inscription bears relevance to the examination;
- iii. not pass or attempt to pass any information from one person to another during an examination;
- iv. neither act in collusion with any other candidate(s) or person(s) nor copy, nor attempt to copy from another candidate, nor engage in any similar activity;
- v. only use their matriculation numbers for examination, (no names should be written);

- vi. not be allowed to leave an examination venue until after 50% of the time allocated for that particular paper has expired;
- vii. not write any University examination on behalf of any other student, nor other people write any University examination for them;
- viii. not to be in possession of incriminating material(s) either used or not at the examination or involved in any other serious examination misconduct including impersonation before, during or after an examination; and
- ix. in the case of CBT examinations, students must be orderly and abide by the rules or guidelines prevailing at the Centre.

ii. Procedure for Investigating Alleged Examination Misconduct

- a. Any student caught in any examination irregularities shall be required to sign and submit to Chief Invigilator, a written statement in the Examination hall and venue.
Failure to make a written statement shall be deemed to be an admission of the charge against such a candidate.
- b. The Chief Invigilator shall report any such action taken to the Dean through the Faculty Examination Coordinator (Sub-Dean) immediately after the completion of the examination by other students, but not later than 12 hours after the examination.
- c. The Dean shall, within 48 hours of receiving a report, set up a panel of not less than three academic staff to investigate the alleged examination misconduct. The report of such investigation shall be made available to the Registrar within two (2) weeks, and he shall on the basis of the recommendation(s), determine whether or not the matter should be processed to the Students' Disciplinary Committee.

d. The Students' Disciplinary Committee shall, within four (4) weeks of receiving such a report, investigate and recommend the penalty in cases of proven misconduct to the Vice-Chancellor.

iii. Penalties

a. In a situation where a student sits for an examination in a course not registered for, no score shall be recorded for such a student.

D. Examination Leakage

Where the Dean or Director has reason to believe that the nature of any question or the content of any question paper may have become known before the date and time of the examination to any person(s) other than the examiners and any official of the University authorised to handle the examination question paper, he may order the suspension of the examination or cancellation of the question paper or the setting of a new set of questions. He shall then investigate the leakage and report the matter to the Vice-Chancellor.

E. Absence from Examination

a. Students shall present themselves at such University Examinations for which they have registered under these Regulations. Students who fail to do so for reasons other than proven ill-health, accident or any proven emergencies shall be deemed to have failed the particular examination. Misreading/ignorance of the time-table and such other excuses shall not be accepted as a satisfactory explanation for absence or lateness.

b. A student who falls ill during examination period should report in writing to the Dean of his/her Faculty through his/her Head of Department and or the University Health Services.

F. Make-Up Examinations

A "Make-Up" Examination is an examination specially arranged for a student or a group of students who could not sit for the normal examinations due to ill-health or any other unavoidable circumstances. Each case shall, however, be treated on its merit.

- a. A student who is absent from an examination on account of ill-health confirmed by medical evidence from a recognised hospital/clinic, may be given a makeup examination in the course(s) missed, based on approved guidelines by Senate or take the regular examination when it is next available as his/her make-up.
- b. Recommendation for make-up examination to the Senate shall be by the Faculty Board provided that:
 - i the ill-health has been reported to the Dean through the Head of Department; and
 - ii the student has obtained a written report from the Director of Health Services or his/her designated officer which either:
 - a) is dated prior to the end of the examination, or
 - b) provides evidence that the student was hospitalised during the period of the examination
- c. Make-up examinations shall normally be conducted within the three (3) weeks and other processes concluded not later than five (5) weeks of the following semester.

G. Determination of Result

i. General

A student shall be deemed to have passed a first-degree examination if he/she has satisfied Senate in all the requirements for the examinations (including all General Courses). A student who had been referred in any of these requirements shall be deemed to have passed that examination when he/she has fulfilled the requirements.

ii. Pass Mark

The pass mark shall be 40% in all Colleges and Institutes.

iii. Make-up Examination

Following the conclusion of such examinations (normally within the first five (5) weeks of the new semester) the updated good-standing result of such candidate shall be processed through the Deputy Registrar (Academic Affairs) to Senate for approval.

iv. Procedure for Result Verification:

- a) The student completes online “Result Verification Form” available on the University website.
- b) The student submits the form to his/her Head of Department for onward transmission to the Deputy Registrar (Academic Affairs).
- c) The HOD, within one week, shall issue to the student, the verified result either confirming the old score or reflecting the new one. A copy shall also be forwarded to the Deputy Registrar (Academic Affairs).
- d) Where a review occurs, the HOD is under obligation to give reasons and forward a copy of the Verification Report through the Dean to the Director of Academic Planning Unit and Deputy Registrar (Academic Affairs).
- e) In case the student is still not satisfied with the result, he/she shall obtain a Re-mark Request Form from the Deputy Registrar (Academic Affairs). The Form shall be filled and submitted to the same office.

15. STUDENTS' CLUBS AND ORGANISATIONS

a. Recognition of Clubs and Organisations:

Students' Clubs and Organisations will only be recognised after the prospective Clubs/Societies must have satisfied the following:

- i. Submission of duly prescribed completed Application Forms to Dean, Student Affairs.
- ii. Submission of letters of undertaking from a staff Adviser/ Patron.
- iii. Submission of the Clubs' objectives and constitution, which must be in agreement with the objectives and constitution of the University.
- iv. Every Club/Association must renew its registration at the beginning of each session with the Student Affairs Unit.
- v. All Writers' Clubs and names of their magazines/journals, writers or columnists, must be registered in the Student Affairs Unit and approval must be obtained before publications commence.
- vi. Approval for a change of name of any registered associations must also be obtained from the Student Affairs Unit before the commencement of operations under the new names.
- vii. Approval must be duly obtained for any programme by any registered association before commencement.
- viii. All duly registered Clubs and Associations in the University are normally expected to be affiliated to the Students' Union of the University.
- ix. Association holding event outside the university campus must also obtain security approval and attach same to the request to the Dean of Student Affairs Unit.
- x. Approval of the Dean of Student Affairs Unit must be duly obtained for any excursion visit outside the campus

b. Activities Involving Guests from Outside the University:

In keeping with the University's traditional commitment to freedom of enquiry and the pursuit of truth, students' organisations are allowed to organise activities featuring guest speakers of their choice from within and outside the University. However, the University has an obligation to ensure that activities on the campus are conducted in appropriate manner with requisite protocol. Whenever a President, Governor, Minister, Commissioner, Head of Diplomatic Mission or other dignitaries from outside the University are to be invited, the Dean of Student Affairs must be informed in writing and approval obtained at least four weeks before inviting the guest to the University.

c. Guidelines and Regulations for Campus, Media Organisations and Student Campus Journalism

- i. No Media organisation shall operate as Campus Media Organisation unless it is duly registered with the Student Affairs Unit and obtain a written document to that effect.

- vii. Any freelance Journalist shall be held solely responsible for any false and libelous publication made by him or her in his/her name against and concerning any staff member, student(s), or group in the University Community.
- viii. No Press Organisation shall direct a libelous or injurious article to any staff member, student(s), or group(s), in the University Community.

17. REGULATIONS GUIDING RELIGIOUS ACTIVITIES ON THE CAMPUS

- a. Students are free to belong to religious Organisations of their choice in accordance with the Constitution of The Gambia, right to freedom of religion.
- b. No religious sermon/witnessing sermon should be undertaken in places not authorised for that purpose. For example, no religious, witnessing sermon or preaching should be conducted in the cafeteria, canteen, eateries, lecture rooms, theatres, library, buses, public vehicles, car parks etc.
- c. Room to room and within the room preaching/witnessing is not allowed in the hostels.
- d. Religious Organisations are free to use designated University facilities for their religious activities but not in any academic facilities like lecture theatres, classroom, laboratories. However, permission must be obtained in writing from the Dean of Student Affairs Unit, before using such venues.
- e. Students' Organisations or individual(s) are not allowed to paste or display religious or any type of banners, posters, literature, slickers, etc. anywhere on campus, except with the written permission of the Dean of Student Affairs.

18. STUDENTS DEMONSTRATION AND PROTEST

The University recognises the crucial importance of maintaining open communication and dialogue in the process of identifying and resolving problems, which may arise from the dynamic of life in the University. Equally important, however, is the legitimate rights of any member of the community to dissent, to disagree, to hold different opinion, or to think differently from others. This is an integral aspect of university education and academic freedom. However, the University maintains that the following regulations be satisfied:

- i. Student Organisations shall give an advance notice to the Dean of Student Affair Unit of at least 7 days about the place, nature, methods, date and time of the commencement of the action before embarking on any demonstration, protest etc.
- ii. Students shall not use University property for any form of demonstration.
- iii. When a demonstration takes place on Campus, the University reserves the right to use legitimate means to protect life and property on Campus.
- iv. Before students demonstrate outside the campus, they must obtain Police clearance and security on their own, like any other citizens, before such demonstration and that such students shall be responsible for their own action.
- v. Students' Organisation must give an advance notice of at least two weeks to the Dean of Student Affairs Unit in anticipation of a lecture free day in commemoration of any students' yearly celebrations. The University reserves the right to approve or disapprove such applications.
- vi. No form of violent protest will be condoned by the University and any student found to have contravened this provision shall be made to face the consequences of his/her actions.

19. ANTI-SOCIAL ACTIVITIES INSIDE AND OUTSIDE THE CAMPUS

a. Possession of Dangerous Weapons:

Possession of dangerous weapons like guns, knives, daggers, swords, grenades, acid, etc. in the hostel or around the University premises is forbidden. Any student caught in possession of any of these weapons shall be made to appear before the Student Disciplinary Committee.

b. Secret Societies:

- i. Is an Organisation, group or confraternity about which activities, event, inner functions or membership are concealed.
- ii. It is to be noted that the word "Secret Society" shall include any association of two or more persons whose aims and objectives are not publicly or officially disclosed, published, registered or otherwise made known to the University Authorities; but whose activities or manifest secrecy, mysticism, pervasion, coercion, violence, fraud, immorality, drunkenness, lawlessness and related anti-social activities or behaviour.
- iii. Any student found identifying with or belonging to, operating or canvassing for membership of or partaking or participating or joining and/or in other manner associating with any secret society and unregistered association within and outside the USET shall be made to appear before the Student Disciplinary Committee.

c. Public Disturbance within the Campus

Public Disturbance means source of sounds when it is unreasonably disturbing or interferes peace, comfort or endangers public's safety and health.

- i. No student shall engage in any noisy and disturbing activities such as playing of drums, trumpeting, and playing musical instruments around administrative and academic environment without permission from Student Affairs Unit.

ii. No student shall be involved in any form of reckless driving alone or in convoy.

The generality of our students are peace-loving, well-behaved, and purposeful in their efforts to achieve the objective of their studentship. The entire community should therefore note that the University, through the ambience of its regulations, shall deal with any discovered case(s) of misconduct and anti-social behaviours while cases of criminality would be handed over to the Police. While the University community continue to enjoy the required peace and progress, the University will spare no effort in bringing miscreants to book.

20. DRESS CODE

All students are hereby reminded that there is a DRESS CODE put in place by the University which must be observed at all times.

The University is determined to continue to impact positively on its students not only intellectually but also morally in pursuit of its avowed commitment to the development of TOTAL BEING.

To this end, it will award its degrees to only deserving students who have been found worthy not only in learning but also in character. Students are therefore strongly advised to exhibit good behaviour and dress decently at all times.

A. MALE STUDENTS SHOULD NOTE THAT:

- i. the hair should not be coloured (except it is natural colour);
- ii. the hair should be well kept and groomed always;
- iii. the haircuts should not carry inscriptions;
- iv. curled hair is not acceptable;
- v. Plaiting, weaving or braiding of hair are not acceptable; and
- vi. beards must be well kept.

B. FEMALE STUDENTS SHOULD NOTE THAT:

- i. weaving, plaiting, braiding, fixing and wigs are acceptable;
- ii. hair extensions with colours such as Blue, Green, White, Yellow, Red, Pink and Purple or a combination of any of these colours are not acceptable;

- iv. all wears must be below the knee level;
- v. pencil trousers are allowed but must be complemented with tops that cover the butt line; and
- vi. all traditional and corporate wears that do not reveal sensitive parts of the body are acceptable.

The mode of dressing of a student speaks volumes about him or her. In other words, one's appearance influences people's perception of one's person. Students should, therefore, always dress responsibly to command respect. All students must refrain from wearing INDECENT CLOTHINGS, if they must be accorded respect and protect their dignity.

EVERY STUDENT MUST HANG STUDENT I.D. CARD ON HIS/HER NECK.

C. UNACCEPTABLE WEARS

You are hereby required to note that the following constitute inappropriate mode of dressing that will not be tolerated in the University environment (including Lecture Halls, Library, Laboratories, Examination Venues, Seminar Rooms, Faculties and Administrative building as well as in university vehicles):

- i. Dress that exposes any sensitive parts of the body e.g. cleavage, chest, back, navel, thigh and armpit (clothes that reveal the armpits when hands are raised e.g. sleeveless/half sleeves);

D. PENALTY

Violation of the Dress Code as prescribed by the University is a serious act of misconduct which shall attract a strong warning by the Dean of Student Affairs Unit and/or may be made to appear before the Students' Disciplinary Committee, if consistent.

THE WAY YOU DRESS DETERMINES THE WAY YOU ARE ADDRESSED

21. LINE OF COMMUNICATION FOR REPORTING CASES OF SEXUAL ASSAULT

Sexual Harassment

Sexual harassment is a non-consensual sexual activity which ranges from unwanted touching to rape, unsolicited sexual advances, verbal and non-verbal conducts that forcefully or subtly lure a student into sexual relationship. This includes:

i. Non-Verbal Sexual Harassment such as:

- a. Unwanted suggestive gestures,
- b. Displaying sexually explicit images,

ii. Physical Sexual Harassment

- a. Display of inordinate affection towards the opposite sex and unwanted physical contact like touching, forceful kissing, groping, pecking, fondling and assault,
- b. Acts of sexual violence that shows physical aggression or harm towards other individual for the purpose of sex.
- c. Use of authority to coerce a student for sexual gain.
- d. Rape/sexual assault

iii. Cyber Sexual Harassment

- a. Cyber Sexual bullying that invokes sexual comments, blackmails, use of nudity, threats or taunts projected to intimidate, harass a person through social media.
- b. Watching of pornography on the campus
- c. Sending of nude pictures to others

It is expected that staff and students who experience any form of sexual harassment are to use the following medium to report:

- a. Dean of Student Affairs
- b. Dean of the College or Director of the Institute
- c. Head of Department (HOD)
- d. Director, USET Counselling and Human Development Centres

The following channels of communication can be utilised by any student who is sexually harassed:

- i. Direct to the Vice-Chancellor
- ii. Dress Code Committee

22. USE OF THE UNIVERSITY STUDENTS UNION BUILDING (SUB)

The SUB and the Common Rooms are supposed to be relaxation centres for all students. In order to forestall unwholesome use of the Student Union Building (SUB), the underlisted conduct in the usage of the SUB must be complied with:

- i. There should be no smoking in the building or its premises.
- ii. Gambling in whatever form is prohibited on our campuses including Student Union Building, Common rooms, and within Halls of Residence.
- iii. Students are not permitted to turn the SUB or offices to a place of abode.

Violation of these rules constitutes a misconduct liable to disciplinary action.

23. USET COUNSELLING AND HUMAN DEVELOPMENT CENTRES

In order to prevent unnecessary rise in the rate of anti-social activities among students and to encourage positive thinking and actions that would promote the attainment of academic pursuit and total well-being of the students, the University has made provisions for students to receive proper guidance and counselling from professional Counsellors. These Counsellors are housed in the University Counselling and Human Development Centre. Students are therefore encouraged to consult them as frequently as possible for guidance/counselling on matters affecting their personal, academic and socio-personal life.

USET Counselling and Human Development Centre provide services which can enhance student's competency and effectiveness. In order to meet the psychological needs of the members of the University community especially the students, the Centre provides guidance and counselling services based on the following areas:

- a. Educational/Academic Counselling
- b. Career and Vocational Counselling
- c. Personal-Social Counselling
- d. Marriage and Family Counselling
- e. Health Counselling
- f. Research and Other Related Activities
- g. Individual and group counselling
- h. Behavioural management, and
- i. Human Development and life skills training.

24. RECREATIONAL CENTRES ON CAMPUS

The Gambia University of Applied Science, Engineering, and Technology (USET) is planning to establish state-of-the-art recreational centres, including:

- A sports complex for various sports and activities
- A fitness centre for students to stay active and healthy
- A club house for socializing and relaxation

Updates on the development and implementation of these recreational centres will be communicated to students as plans progress, ensuring that they are informed and involved throughout the process.

25. SANCTIONS FOR VIOLATION OF REGULATIONS

The following are some of the sanctions which may be imposed for violation of University regulations or Code of Conduct:

a. Fines

The Dean of Student Affairs (DSA) and Hall Masters/Mistresses may impose implementable fines (see Appendix A) for certain categories of offences committed in the Halls of Residence. Offences committed in other locations of the University which attract fines will be dealt with by the appropriate authority. Failure to pay the fine within 7 clear days after the imposition of such fine shall lead to such student appearing before the Student Disciplinary Committee (SDC).

b. Restitution

Restitution means that a student must pay for damage done to, loss or misappropriation of the University property or the property of other members of the University community. Such restitution is imposed on any student who alone, or through group concerted activities, organises or participates in the events which cause damage or loss.

c. Reprimand and Warning

A student may be reprimanded or and warned for violation of University rule and regulations. If he/she were to commit further breaches of discipline in future, his/her present offence would be taken into consideration in the course of future hearings when a penalty for that subsequent breach is under consideration.

d. Suspension/Rustication

Any student suspended/rusticated must withdraw from the University for the stated period, and shall further comply with any other condition(s) or requirement (s) related to the suspension/ rustication.

e. Expulsion

Any student expelled ceases to be a member of the University and loses all rights and privileges of membership. It may also require the payment of compensation in some cases.

26. CONCLUSION

If any form of misconduct is not captured by this Students' Information and Regulations Handbook, the Students' Disciplinary Committee may exercise its discretion to apportion appropriate sanctions taking into consideration the circumstances of each incidence.

Violations of any of the University Rules and Regulations by any student(s), member(s) of the Students' Union Executive Committee or any other Organisations/clubs or individual(s), may lead to imposition of fine, restitution, reprimand/warning, suspension/rustication or expulsion of any or all offending officials, and/or individual(s) concerned from the University, in addition to other disciplinary measures deemed appropriate.

It is hoped that students will continue to sustain the confidence reposed in them by adhering strictly to these Rules and Regulations thereby leading to propagation of the good name of the University. We wish you a successful stay in the University.
